Roundtable News

Roundtable is provided for all district leadership. We meet the second Thursday 7:30 at Donaldson Way School in American Canyon. Cub Scout: The Core value for May is Health and Fitness. We will discuss how being personally committed to keeping our minds and bodies clean and fit integrates into our Cub Scout program. We'll be looking at the Cub Scout academics and sports program and how that contributes to the core values along with some fun activities and how to incorporate health and fitness into your den and pack meetings. Come bring a friend and join us for some FUN!!

Boy Scouts: Our April Boy Scout Round Table split will consist of small discussion groups. They will be Scoutmasters, Assistant Scoutmasters, Committee Chairs and members, Venture Advisors, as well as leaders from Varsity, Explorers and Ships. So, everyone is welcome! Please join us for issues specific to your position. Come prepared to review your Annual Unit Calendar / Plan. Hope to see you there!

Race Day 2011

Rev up your engines! On Saturday April 2 at the Veterans Memorial Building, 420 Admiral Callaghan Lane, Vallejo (map), we will have Race Day 2011. Race against other Cub Scouts in the Silverado District. Weigh-in will be at 12pm, with the racing starting at 1 pm.

Everyone is welcome. Please wear your uniform. Registration is $3. For more information contact Jeremy Lowe (707) 373-6907 or email pack118@gmail.com.

Training

Check out the training page in this issue or contact Tony Zarate, zsrhere@aol.com, for more information about the Position Specific Training on April 9.

Camporee 2011

Hello fellow space travelers!! On behalf of the Silverado Galaxy, we invite you to join us for Scout Trek, Camporee 2011. At Camporee you will have a fun and exciting weekend with fun and challenging events that test your scout skills; have fun in the sun and water, campfires (one of which you will get to perform in) and have a blast with your fellow scouts and make some new friends. This event is open to all Webelos, Boy Scouts and venturing crew members. The date of Camporee is April 28-May 1, 2011 and is located on Planet Earth, Pleasure Cove, Lake Berryessa, 6100 Highway 128, Napa. If you have any questions please email Claude Smith, claudesmith007@comcast.net, or Diane Freeman at zjmom68@yahoo.com. We hope to see the entire Galaxy there!!

FOS

February, Scouting in the USA celebrated it 101st Birthday. Thank you to all the families who participated in FOS at Blue and Gold, or Court of Honor. This years Friends of Scouting goals are achievable, if every Scouting family will participate to the best of their. Your FOS dollars provide for council support, training and program that keep Scouting alive in our community.

STATE OF THE DISTRICT

Silverado District is off to a great start. The Feb and March Roundtables were well attended and great fun. At the April committee meeting we will begin planning the next calendar. We hope to have an active first draft calendar completed at the May 5th meeting. The sole purpose of the district is to support the units it serves. Everyone is invited to help. WE NEED COMMISSIONERS! If you know of someone who would make a great unit commissioner please send Chuck Speir (sgcommissioner@sbcglobal.net) a note with their name and contact information.

District Dinner

The Silverado District Dinner will be May 13th at the Vallejo Elks Lodge. This year it is a western theme and the cost will be $20/person. More details will come out via Doubleknot. Reservations are due by May 6 to silveradodistrict@gmail.com .
